Date:	Wednesday, June 26, 2024 9:27:12 AM

Greetings Class of 2027 –

Can you believe June is almost over? I hope your summer is going well and you've been able to enjoy a little rest and relaxation before law school begins this fall!

A few quick housekeeping items before I get to new information:

1. We will be sending out class registration information mid-July for the five (5) required courses that you will all be taking this fall once we have assigned sections for Lawyering Skills.
2. All previous emails and important information has been put on our Class of 2027 Webpage
3. There will be a Canadian Law Students Society Introductory Meeting on July 10th. Please see the Week #7 email for more details and be sure to RSVP here for the Zoom link.
4. Class of 2027 Facebook Page – https://www.facebook.com/groups/2361246804079997/
5. If you would prefer these weekly emails to go to your UND email, please let me know and I can update our records.
6. We understand that life circumstances happen. If your plans no longer include UND School of Law, please reach out to us ASAP.

NEW INFORMATION

JDEdge by AccessLex℠

We are excited to announce we have partnered with AccessLex Institute®, the largest nonprofit organization focusing on access, affordability, and the value of legal education for aspiring lawyers, to bring you JDEdge by AccessLex℠, an online asynchronous program, designed specifically for rising 1Ls, like you! Available at no cost to you or our law school, the lessons in JDEdge will provide you with a solid foundation for the critical skills you will need to succeed as a law student. To ensure that you're ready to hit the ground running on day one, you are encouraged to complete the lessons in JDEdge prior to orientation.

With approximately 20 hours of content, JDEdge takes a multi-format approach — including interactive online lessons, videos, webinars, and live workshops — delivered in concise and easy to understand components:

Module One: Introduction to Law School — Engage in lessons on time management during law school, where to go for help within your law school community, an overview of the judicial system, and some important legal terminology.

Module Two: Preparing for Class — Learn how to best prepare for class, how to get the most out of the class experience, and what to do afterwards to make sure the learning sticks. Lessons include case reading and briefing, the Socratic method, note-taking, rule synthesis, and creating study materials.

Module Three: Preparing for Exams — Engage in lessons on writing for law school exams, effective study and memorization techniques, and the importance of taking practice exams. You will also prepare for – and take – a practice exam.

Module Four: Preparing for Law Practice — This module focuses on preparing for law practice, with lessons on licensure, character and fitness, stress management, professional expectations, landing your first legal job, and funding the bar exam experience.

Module Five: Moving Forward — This final module focuses on many of the skills required for success and well-being in law school such as mindset, professional planning, and the importance of reflection.

We're excited for you to join us in the fall, and we take seriously our responsibility to prepare you to be the best law student you can be. That's why we're proudly partnering with JDEdge by AccessLex to help you sharpen the skills you'll need to succeed in law school.

To ensure that you're ready to hit the ground running on day one, you are encouraged to utilize JDEdge as a resource to:

- Learn what to expect from the law school experience and how to be prepared for the work inside and outside of the classroom;
- Get hands on practice with key law school skills, such as case briefing, note-taking, and writing essay exam answers;
- Attend live sessions (recorded to meet your needs) for exposure to the law school classroom experience, walk through examples of key study skills, and have your questions answered by law school experts;
- Download resources to use throughout your first year of law school;
- AccessLex Scholarship Bank;
- And so much more!

Plus, JDEdge takes a multi-format approach — including interactive online lessons, videos, webinars, and follow-up assignments delivered in quick and easy to understand components. This allows you to define your own path and easily break up lessons to fit into your summer schedule.

Visit AskEDNA.AccessLex.org to register. Your name, email address, school and class year are all you need to log in to the program, personalize your experience and track your progress. No other personal information is required, and all information remains confidential.
