

III. Transfer, Visiting and Non Degree Students

E. UND Student Transient or Visiting at Another Law School

A UND law student may request transient or visiting student status at another ABA- accredited law school. All UND requirements for the Juris Doctor degree must be satisfied. Up to one-third of the credits required for graduation from this law school will be accepted, provided that the student's course of study at the other law school is approved by the Dean (or his/her designee).
