I recognize that the UND Law Clinic demands a significant commitment of time and effort and involves legal work on behalf of live clients and on actual cases for which I will be responsible, if I am selected for and enroll in a Law Clinic course. I recognize that the Law Clinic, of necessity, must be my major commitment during my enrollment.

I further recognize that the number of students enrolled in the Law Clinic is limited and I understand that if I am selected for the Law Clinic and decide to enroll, I will not be permitted to drop the course without the express permission of my Law Clinic professors.
