

HOUSING DISCRIMINATION LAW (#346, JACKSON)
Monday/Wednesday, 10:40 a.m. – 12:05 p.m.
Room 8

1. Assignment for First Class

- a. For our first class on Monday, August 26, please read and be prepared to discuss the following pages from the course textbook, Richard Rothstein, THE COLOR OF LAW, (Liveright 2017):
 - Preface* (pp. VII – XVII)
 - If San Francisco, Then Everywhere?* (pp. 3-14).
- b. In preparation for class, please also think about your reasons for taking this course, what you hope to learn from it, and what (if any) background experiences, concerns, questions, issues, ideas, or beliefs you bring to the course.
- c. Also, sign in as a participant on the course TWEN page, where additional materials will be posted for future classes. Be certain to use your law school email address when you sign in to the TWEN page.

2. Course Syllabus

A finalized syllabus will be distributed and discussed during our first class session.

This is a discussion-based course that satisfies the intensive writing requirement. There is no final exam. Grades will be based on written homework submissions, quizzes, a book review, and class participation. THE COLOR OF LAW is the only textbook required for this course.
