

NORTH DAKOTA LAW REVIEW
Innovation and Technology Symposium
Thursday, March 21, 2024
Avalon Events Center – Fargo, North Dakota

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

| Schedule | Presentations |
|---------------------------|---|
| 8:00 a.m. | Breakfast (provided) Opening Remarks by Brian Pappas (Dean, UND School of Law) |
| 9:00 a.m. (50m) | Nikola Datzov Assistant Professor, UND School of Law North Dakota's Path of Innovation: A Rich History and Promising Future |
| 10:00 a.m. (1h15m) | Moderator: Blake Klinkner Assistant Professor, UND School of Law Panelists: Kurt J. Niederluecke Shareholder, Fredrikson & Byron Emily Tremblay Partner, Robins Kaplan Courtland Merrill Partner, Saul Ewing Protecting Innovation Panel |
| 11:20 a.m. (50m) | Hiep Pham (Keynote) Senior Intellectual Property Counsel, Cargill The Facilitating Attorney: Paving a Path to Innovation |
| 12:10 p.m. | Lunch (provided) |
| 1:15 p.m. (1h15m) | Moderator: Amy Whitney Director, UND Center for Innovation Panelists: Erin Roesler Deputy Exec. Director, Northern Plains UAS Senator Jonathan Sickler ND 68th Legis. Assem. Craig Felchle Chief Technology Officer, NDIT Incentivizing Innovation Panel |
| 2:45 p.m. (50m) | Renee Henson Visiting Assistant Professor, University of Missouri School of Law Bridging the Divide: Does the EU's AI Act Offer Code for Regulating Emergent Technologies in America? |
| 3:45 p.m. (50m) | Mark Lanterman Chief Technology Officer, Computer Forensic Services Digital Evidence, Cyber Threat Awareness, and Creative Strategies for Managing Risk |
| 4:35 p.m. | Closing Remarks by Michael McGinniss (NDLR Faculty Advisor) and Erica Solberg (NDLR Editor-in-Chief) |

This Symposium is approved for:
5.25 ND CLE credits & 0.75 ND Ethics CLE credits
6.00 MN CLE credits