

NORTH DAKOTA LAW REVIEW

Volume 95

2020

Number 1

ARTICLES

The Mayflower Compact: Celebrating Four Hundred Years of Influence on U.S. Democracy
Julia L. Ernst 1

Billed v. Paid – Why the Amount Billed by a Medical Provider is the Only Amount a Jury Should Consider in Determining the Reasonable Value of Medical Care in a North Dakota Personal Injury Action
James R. Hoy 137

To Object or Not Object, That is the Question: A Criminal Law Practitioner’s Guide to the “Five W’s” of Evidentiary Objections
Jonathan J. O’Konek 155

CASE COMMENTS

Contracts—Restraint of Trade or Competition in Trade—Forum-Selection Clauses & Non-Compete Agreements: Choice-of-Law and Forum-Selection Clauses Prove Unsuccessful Against North Dakota’s Longstanding Ban on Non-Compete Agreements
Abigale Griffin 179

Criminal Law—Search and Seizure: Determining Probable Cause Relating to “Hands-Free” Laws
Joseph Hackman 193

Statutory Rights – Speedy Trial: Considering Good Cause Delay and Proper Procedure When the Defendant Invokes His Statutory Right to a Speedy Trial
Tatiana Hamilton 207

Real Property – Eminent Domain: Assessing the Takings Clause and Ending the State-Litigation Requirement
Ashley Vander Wal 229