

I. The Academic Program

A. General Requirements

8. Joint Degree Programs

- a. The faculty of the School of Law has approved three joint programs:
 1. JD/MBA Program with the College of Business & Public Administration.
 2. JD/MPA Program with the College of Business & Public Administration.
 3. JD/MPH Program with the School of Medicine & Health Sciences.

- b. Admissions.
 1. Students must apply separately to the School of Law and the School of Graduate Studies. The Law School Admissions Committee will determine admission to the JD Program at the School of Law using the regular process for admission.
 2. Admission to the MBA, MPA or MPH programs will be considered by the Law School Admissions Committee, but does not guarantee admission to the JD Program.
 3. Students may apply to the MBA, MPA and MPH programs and be recognized as joint degree candidates any time before completing their JD.

- c. Degree requirements.
 1. The Graduation Requirements for completing the JD are the same for Joint Degree students.
 2. The School of Law will accept up to nine credits of courses taken as part of the MBA, MPA or MPH programs towards completion of the JD. The student must identify these dual credit courses on a form provided by the Office of Student Life. Grades receive in dual credit courses will be used in determining a Student's School of Law GPA and class rank.
