

I. The Academic Program

B. General Rules

7. Credit for Courses Outside the Law School

Unless otherwise provided in the requirements of a joint degree or certificate program, students may take up to six credits of undergraduate or graduate courses in other departments or colleges of the University of North Dakota, with the approval of the Assistant Dean. The student's petition must indicate how the requested course(s) will contribute to the student's professional education. Courses approved under this section will be graded on a basis of S/U.