Law School Unmasked™

Dear Aleisha,

We are pleased to introduce Law School Unmasked™, a series of lectures and panel discussions focusing on topics essential for law school success, including academic skill building, career pathways, and everything in between. The program, specifically designed for incoming 1L students and those considering a future in law, will run three days each week from Tuesday, June 22 through Thursday, July 8.

We encourage you to urge your students to take advantage of this unique and affordable program. We are confident these sessions will help them build a solid foundation for their legal education journey.

Law School Unmasked™ aims to bridge the knowledge gap for incoming 1L students so they can feel more confident and prepared to succeed in that important first year. For students who plan to attend law school in the near future, the curriculum will offer a new perspective that will help them begin their legal education journey with a flying start.

The Law School Unmasked™ curriculum was created as an exclusive benefit for LSAC LawHubSM Official LSAT Prep Plus® subscribers, who can register for the program for free directly from their current LawHub accounts. LawHub subscribers who do not have a Prep Plus® account can upgrade their current free subscription for $99 and enjoy all the benefits, including free registration for this program. For students who do not have a LawHub account, now is the perfect time to create one, upgrade and get access to this informative and affordable program.

For more information about the program and the curriculum, please visit the Law School Unmasked™ webpage. Again, we encourage you to share this information with your admitted and prospective students. We are confident this program will provide a significant benefit to both incoming 1L and prospective students.

Sincerely,

Susan L. Krinsky
