

NORTH DAKOTA LAW REVIEW

Volume 101

2026

Number 1

ARTICLES

- The Predominant or Primary Purpose Test for Determining Whether a Communication is Sufficiently Incident to a Protected Relationship to be Privileged: The Danger of Relying on Vague Labels that Miss the Mark of the Underlying Instrumental Rationale for Privileges
Edward J. Imwinkelried 1
- Disconnecting in an Age of Connectivity: The Role of Corporate Governance and Policy in Legislating the Right to Disconnect
Cynthia Ramkellawan 31

CASE COMMENTS

- Criminal Law – Hearsay: Testimonial or Non-Testimonial Out-of-Court Statements for Ongoing Emergencies
Gabriel Almlie 65
- Criminal Law – Fraud: New Theory Applies to Federal Fraud Prosecutions
Megan Middaugh 81
- Civil Rights – Education and Disabilities: The Elimination of a Heightened Standard of Proof for Students with Special Needs
Emma Norgard 103
- Constitutional Law – Fourth Amendment: Eighth Circuit Replaces Clear Statement Rule with Course of Proceedings Test in § 1983 Claims
Faith Scheuer 123